

Please,leave the "do not call list" in New Jersey alone. I am disabled and I always resented the fact that someone could call me at any time and interrupt things that are important in my efforts of daily living. I have so enjoyed the fact that these calls have been stopped and certainly am against any change in our state law.